

WHAT DO THEY HAVE IN COMMON? AND WHY DOES IT MATTER?

Please join us in Bais Menachem of NMB
1005 NE 172nd Terrace

on Wednesday

Chof Teves - January 10th at 8:00 in the evening with world-renowned scholar, author and lecturer Rabbi Dr. J. Immanuel Schochet*

for a Forum and Question & Answer session on insights from

"The Guide for the Perplexed"

The philosophical work of the Rambam advocating the truth and superiority of Torah over the sciences and other philosophies and theologies

Men and Women are invited ~ Refreshments will be served

* Rabbi Dr. J. Immanuel Schochet is a world-renowned scholar, author and lecturer. He is a pulpit Rabbi, and for 25 years served as Professor of Philosophy at Humber College in Toronto and taught Medical Ethics at the School of Medicine of the University of Toronto. Rabbi Schochet is known for his incisive and frank analysis and comments on any religious and social matters, with profound and comprehensive erudition.